Product Review: Ooowee I love Jane Carter!

Thursday, March 10, 2011

This month I was able to try to try the Jane Carter Solutions Line exclusively at Target and I must say I was pleasantly surprised. Now I must admit.. whenever I get new products to try I get a warm, fuzzy feeling almost like it is a holiday or birthday.

Whenever I try a new product I use a simple strategy to see if the product is "all that":

1. I only use that product for at least two weeks. This allows me see if the product is really working.
2. I use the product EXACTLY how it says in the directions.
3. I use the product not just one but multiple times for quality control.

This time I tried Jane Carter's Moisture Nourishing Shampoo, Nutrient Replenishing Conditioner, Revitalizing Leave-In Conditioner and Curl Defining Cream. Yes, there are a lot of products but my hair is thick and I need a lot of mojo for it to

- All of the products have a great smell--almost a lemon scent!
- Nicely priced all products are under 10 bucks !!! (No need to auction off your arm and leg here)
- There are plenty of products to choose from (wrap lotion, etc)
- Readily available..Jane Carter's line is exclusively at Target!!!
- Environmentally friendly
- PARABEN free
- Not tested on animals
- MADE MY TWIST OUT LOOK FIERCE!
- My hair not only smelled good but felt super SOFT!

Cons

- I only had the sample sizes..I am making time to buy the actual buy the real size!

All in all the Jane Carter Solutions Line is winning! Out of all of the products I choose , if I only had to choose one that is a MUST HAVE I would say **drum roll** would be the revitalizing leave in Conditioner, leave in conditioner and the curl defining creme. Yes, I could not really just pick one..All of these products rock! When I took my hair down the following morning for a fresh twist out I was impressed with my hair and how it felt! I will definitely put this in my rotation of "trusty products to use.

Have you used the Jane Carter Solution Line? Am I the last person on earth to use this line? What were your results? I would love to hear from you!

Yes, I use Jane Carter products on the regular. I love her stuff. Every one of her products that I've used have treated my hair quite well. Still haven't tried the Curl creme because its a bit pricey. I'd have to test it on my hair before making that kind of investment.

Glad it worked well for you.
